Creative Consensus-Building

A key success factor for strategic planning success, sustainable innovation and, most importantly, strategic vitality, is creative consensus-building. There are as many diverse strategies to do creative consensus-building as there are diverse stakeholder groups to facilitate. Creativity in consensus-building lies in “reading” your stakeholders accurately and facilitating some common ground where their vision or their common need outweighs the distraction of their differing perspectives.

Effective consensus-building relies heavily on developing a common vision, a common “language” around the issue or opportunity and a “buy-in” of the process.

If this is your challenge, call on the group facilitation and planning skills of Strategic Vitality, LLC!

Overview

Strategic Vitality, LLC was founded to provide a variety of consensus-building and collaborative strategic planning services to nonprofits, companies, and public sector entities. Through joint venture with a variety of planning and communications professionals, Strategic Vitality founder and principal Victoria Conner can help an organization or stakeholder group identify success factors and integrate elements necessary to achieve an ambitious mission. She is an experienced designer/coordinator of organization-wide, citywide, countywide and statewide projects and collaborations involving diverse stakeholder groups requiring a strong public/private/policymaker interface.

Call or email for a strategic vitality consultation. Whether you need a broad-based strategic plan, a series of workshops, or a single retreat session, Strategic Vitality LLC can create a process to effectively address your specific issues and opportunities. For professional background information on Victoria Conner, see website biography. Headquartered in Santa Barbara County, Strategic Vitality also has small group workshop space available in the greater Los Angeles area.

Sustainable Innovation: "Strategic Vitality"

While the flow of most periodic strategic planning follows a step-by-step process similar to the course defined by the broad arrows, true strategic vitality is only achieved by a network-centric culture that allows linkage from any one element in the process to any other element. Strategic Vitality, LLC helps organizations and stakeholder groups think and work through both their periodic strategic planning needs and the ongoing linkage and activities that will ensure sustainable innovation.
